INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

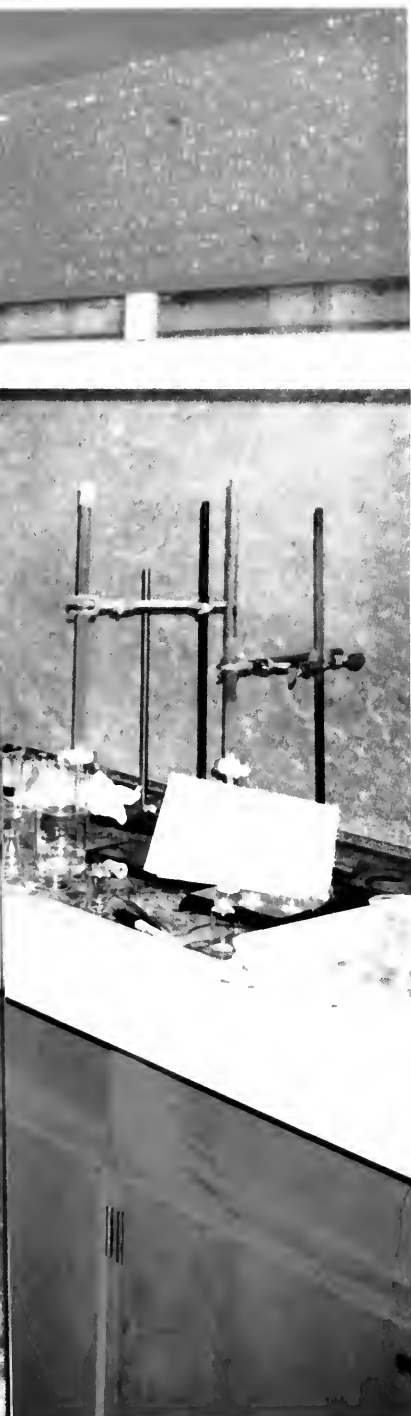

Paris, Rome, Moscow . . . and Davidson? Though few would consider Davidson one of the world's cultural centers, it does host a wealth of different cultures represented by its numerous international students. Every fall semester, Davidson hosts its international festival to heighten international awareness among its students and the community. It also provides Davidson's international students the opportunity to celebrate their culture with American students as well as other international students.

Within the last two years, many changes have occurred both in the world and here at Davidson. One moment we were disoriented freshmen trying to find which rooms our classes were in. Hall mixers soon followed, and we received our Davidson big brothers or big sisters. The first night down on Patterson Court and Self-Selection night seem blurred together when "remembered" as juniors.

The next moment we were all living in Belk or "down the hill", and were at the bottom of every list from room selection to course selection.

Now many of us are either hall counselors, resident advisors, or studying abroad. I guess the old adage "Time flies when you're having fun!" proves correct. I never knew thirty-page papers and three and a half hour labs could be considered fun.

Juniors Study Abroad

Junior year, supposedly the best at Davidson: you've established a great group of friends; most turn twenty-one and can finally descend into the "bowels of the basement"; you have some direction because you've declared a major but you don't have to stress out about finding a job; you've fulfilled your gym requirements; most of your classes start later and you know just when to get out of bed to make it to class on time; your biggest worries are if you'll run out of alcohol that night and when the next check from your parents will be deposited in your quickly depleting bank account.

Yet if the junior year is so great, why weren't there more juniors at Davidson? This year an unusually large number of students decided to study in another country. Junior year at Davidson did not appeal to many students; for some the new alcohol policy, academic stress and social pressure outweighed the school's advantages.

The hall counselors, resident advisors, and the handful of juniors who stayed on campus did, however, bond. New friendships flourished. With lots of familiar faces gone, Davidson did not appear so small.

Back on Freshmen Halls

Remember your freshman year? Mixers, hall meetings, big brothers and big sisters, Freshman Regatta, Flickerball, hall dinners, hangin' out, self-selection night,...? The people who were behind many of these events were your HALL COUNSELORS. They were a pair of juniors who gave up opportunities to go abroad or to live with their friends in order to be on a hall full of freshmen. Although being a hall counselor is time-consuming as well as energy-consuming, it is also very rewarding. You meet 25-30 people you may not have otherwise gotten to know, and you learn how to deal with lots of different types of situations, especially when you least expect them. Since you are living with these freshmen, Hall Counseling becomes your life. And it's what you make of it. If you appreciate the role you have, it can be as rewarding as going abroad. You're given responsibilities you may never have faced before; after all, you're fully responsible for the academic, social, emotional, and physical well-being of about 50 parents' most prized possessions! Okay, at least partially responsible. So, for all the future hall counselors, here's my advice: Enjoy it while you can. You may never have such an experience again.

Juniors Are Tops

Juniors played an important role in the Wildcats' athletic success throughout the year. Football quarterback Richard Howell led the team to a respectable 5-5 record. In addition, Alden Smith was named "Fighting Wildcat of the Year." Juniors on the soccer team contributed along the road to the Final Four Championships. At a tournament in Richmond, Ben Hayes was named MVP. Hayes and John Sampers both had the pleasure of scoring against the UCLA goalie who received the Hermann Award. Rob Malinzak and Andy Haile also contributed to the team's success. Malinzak started in the Final Four Tournament, and Haile scored four goals against Marshall during the Southern Conference Tournament.

Not to be outdone, the Junior Lady Wildcats also played an active role in their fall sports. Field hockey goalie Emily Coleman shut out several teams.

Making her job easier, Suzanne Hardesty, Jill Bennett, and Erin Lang worked hard on the field. Volleyball players Amy Howard and Katherine Anderson served up a good season. Women's Soccer found leadership from Susan E. Taylor, Anne Wampler, Jenny Satterfield, and Colleen Camaione.

As fall changed to winter, the men's basketball team defended its home court in Baker. Jason Zimmerman, Ron Horton, and Janko Narat supplied experience and posed a threat to Davidson's opponents. Cyndi Hess and Jennifer Beahm led the women's tennis team. In track, Duncan Spears and Karen Marshall dropped their times in the 400m hurdles and the 800m run, respectively. Juniors also made significant contributions to wrestling, swimming, golf, cross-country, baseball, women's basketball, and men's tennis.

These Warner Hall sophomores enjoy a graffiti-filled basement and the excitement of a semi-formal as they show their Bright Eyes and Big Smiles.

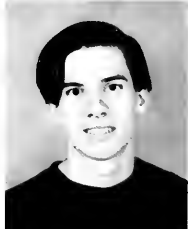

Putting the ball back into play, John Walsh shows how he and other sophomores contributed to the success of this year's rugby team.

As the Class of 1996

Embarked on its journey through the four year academic utopia of Davidson College, the faces of the students were full of hope and expectation. Orientation was a contrast to the expected tensions of uncomfortable surroundings like the first time at summer camp. Orientation immersed the newcomers in their new home in a manner they would never forget. A cake race, hall groupings, the "dating game," karioke sing-alongs, a hall v. hall tug-of-war, and a free-for-all regatta race all spiced up the long lectures on the Honor Code and the Do's and Don'ts Lectures on college life. As Dean Terry made his welcome to this talented class, each freshman realized that he or she was finally in college. Once the so-called "Orientation period" was over, the students still had more orienting to do: getting to your first class on time when you still didn't know your way around Chambers, making friendships that would last forever, organizing your flickerball team and having a cool name for it, picking out the good-looking guys or gals, adjusting to your roommate, and passing tests that seem impossible. When times got rough there was always a friend or a hall counselor nearby to lean on, and when times were great there was always someone to party with.

The women of Third Rich are extremely excited after winning the Freshman Regatta which takes place every year at the Lake Campus.

Each year students volunteer to be Big Brothers and Big Sisters in the community. Mark and his little brother Trey get to meet Ronald.

PATERSON COURT

IIKA

Oh, those Davidson Pikes -- up to those crazy campus hijinx again. Haunted House, service auction, and wet T-shirt contest with Rusk raised a lot of money while a swell time was had by all. Pika raised some $3.2 million during the year on our service projects. We have been applauded by Davidson Physical Plant members Bob Collins, Irvin Brawley, and Rick vanDyke for being the cleanest house on the court, and we take pride in our intimate relationship with Dean Terry and the Davidson College Police Department. We live by our motto "Eat, Drink and Be Fat and Drunk," and our personal hygiene is rivaled by none.

Even though we had a party each and every day of the school year, we were able to boast the absolute highest GPA at any fraternity in the state. Our strict dress code drew praise from the entire school, and we have gathered a huge following of gorgeous women from the Davidson campus and some 113 other campuses in the state. The Davidsonian was rivaled only by our Pulitzer Prize winning weekly issue of Alter and Skull. We not only claimed victories in all of the intramural sports, but virtually all of our brothers are varsity athletes. We also boast one ex-SGA president, all hall counselors, and lots of other really cool, important people.

I will end with a quote that is so often used by our favorite Dean: "Those Pikas are just a bunch of Chiefs among a campus full of Indians. That the Pikas are here is a blessing to us all."

ΣΦΕ

ROTC to hall counseling. Service activities also played a big role, as brothers participated in projects like Habitat for Humanity and Bowl-a-Thon. Some brothers showed off their athletic stuff in varsity sports like swimming and track, while others proved we're not so bad at IMAC flickerball and basketball, either.

Life at the house continues to be relaxing. Dennis' food is still the best on the Court, and what better way to blow off some steam than to come down to our First Night Down, Early 80's, or Champagne Pajama parties? Despite the new alcohol policy, Sig Ep's social calendar didn't suffer. Rush and pledging went well also, as we welcomed twenty-one new brothers in the Spring.

The new guys here have a lot to look forward to in their next three years here, but not only for the above reasons. Most importantly, Sig Ep is still a tight brotherhood. This is what sets us apart, and what will guarantee even better years for Sig Ep in the future.

1992-93 marked yet another strong year for the Sig Eps at Davidson College. Brothers excelled in service activities, campus participation, and sports; and the house was still a great place for us to get away from it all.

Sig Eps took part in campus activities at all levels, ranging from the SGA to The Davidsonian to

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity enjoyed one of its best years ever. In all walks of college life, the Brothers set new precedents for themselves and the house.

One of the most eclectic houses at Davidson, the North Carolina Gamma chapter of Phi Delta Theta has members coming from as far west as Utah and Colorado, reaching all the way to the eastern seaboard. The chapter boasted fourteen varsity athletes from the football, wrestling, swimming, baseball, and track teams, as well as having its largest pledge class ever.

Phi Delts took part in campus activities with Brothers serving as Patterson Court President, on the CCRL, and in SHOC. Their best-known activity, however, is sponsoring the campus' biggest party: Airband.

The chapter does its best to uphold its unique combination of fun and academics, while promoting the traditions of Davidson.

Connor

Connor House

C-O-N-N-O-R, Connor House is what we are! The women of Connor proudly celebrate our first anniversary. It was hard work, but the Court Jesters have conquered every obstacle with dedication and enthusiasm. We're represented on campus as hall counselors, at the Union, on SGA, in athletics, publications, and on the Honor Council. In the community, we are seen at Davidson Daycare, Florence Crittendon, Methodist tutoring, and Adopt-

A-Family.

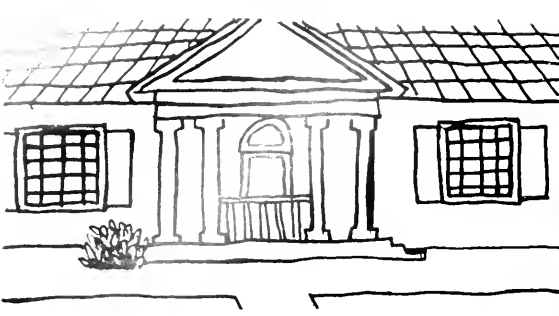

All that and social too? You bet! Our soon-to-be traditions will live on: Jamaican Me Crazy, Murder on the Orient Express, Rita's Ranch and our infamous international and freshman "dinners".

In the house, our kitchen managers serve only the finest culinary delights whipped up by the Crown Jester of Connor, Larry Howard. Connor aerobics and Saturday Coffeehouse add to the fun. We can't forget our IMAC teams -- basketball, volleyball, FLICKERBALL CHAMPIONS!

Connor's diversity is evident in everything we do, but our most cherished quality is togetherness.

...we're on our way. Connor House is here to stay!

Warner Hall

Food, service, and fun... they're all part of our everyday life at Warner Hall. Louise and Lucille, our famous twin cooks, must be the best cooks on the court. They certainly keep us excited about what great meal will be served next. Passion potatoes, fajita bar, Jenny's nachos, strawberry bread, veggie chili, eclair cake, surprise pie, and Oreo ice-cream dessert are some of our favorite foods.

Service is an integral part of our life at Warner Hall. Singing at a nursing home in Huntersville, working with a soup kitchen in Mooresville, Big Sister-Little Sister, recycling, Valentine's Day dance at the Pines, Buck-A-Tuck, and Adopting a family at Christmas are part of our service activities.

Our social calendar is always full of fun events. Mexican FAC, Beverly Hills 90210 study breaks, Senior Men's Champagne Party, Bright Lights Big City semi-formal, Pig-n-Swig, Tacky Party, Steak-and- Date, Patio Party, Champagne Pajama Party with Sig Ep, Scavenger Hunt, Halloween lock-in, Big Sis-Little Sis, People Hunt, Spring Formal, 70's party with Pika, plus a whole lot more. Our social chairmen keep us busy!

The size of Warner Hall allows for great house unity. The cozy size of our house makes it easy to get to know everyone. We boast of incredible diversity within Warner Hall. We have prisses, preps, jocks, and granolas. Our advisor, Senora Pena, is very enthusiastic and supportive of all our events. Last but not least, we are proud to boast the highest GPA on campus!!!

K Σ

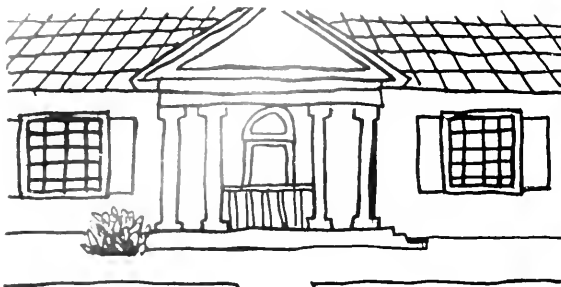

Occasionally I'm asked what it is about Davidson College that I'll miss the most. My answer is always the same because I know that the day after Graduation, or even fifty years later, when I look back on these years most of my memories will come from the times that I have had with my friends and brothers at Kappa Sigma.

These are men who have had the generosity to work for Habitat for Humanity and MADD, but are also just as adept at having a good time on Friday night. I hope that I never forget about Ramsey's enthusiasm both on the field and the dance floor, Courtney making us all look good at Homecoming, of Robb making each day an adventure.

To all of the Brothers of Kappa Sigma, here and gone, thanks for the memories.

BSC

The Black Student Coalition was begun in 1972 when there were only eight blacks on Davidson's campus. Today, though the number of Blacks has increased and become more diverse, the original goal of the BSC has remained the same -- to provide an outlet for the social and cultural needs of Black students.

Each year the BSC strives to create an awareness of the contributions of Blacks both here at Davidson and away. The BSC is active in the community and is a support to Black faculty and staff. By providing social and educational events (such as speakers, step shows, and parties), BSC members hope to share the pride of their culture and their traditions with other students on Davidson's campus.

You do not have to be a Black student to be a member of the BSC. In fact, with more non-Black members, the BSC would be better able to bridge the gap between the races. We would be one step closer to a clearer understanding of what could be done to improve race relations.

Although the BSC is a member of Patterson Court, it is not an eating house or fraternity. BSC members are basically the equivalent of 'social members' at another house. They pay dues to the BSC and continue to be active in other houses and organizations as well. Come check it out -- it's the cheapest house you'll ever join.

Rusk House

Rusk House is alive and well with more enthusiasm than ever. With Ruskies involved in all aspects of Davidson life from varsity sports to student government to art and drama, they still find time to devote to service projects and even a few parties here and there!

This year we had a goal of 1500 service hours to commemorate our 15th Anniversary. All tallied, Ruskies came together to commit over 2000 hours to service. We held a Walk-A-Thon around the community to raise money for cancer research, adopted a family for the holidays, and participated in various activities surrounding our monthly spotlights on service, including homelessness and children.

Starting the year off, we took a surprise trip to the Tryon Steeplechase for Destination Unknown, followed it with Policeman's Brawl, had a grand celebration for Self-Selection, made a toast to St. Valentine at Heaven and Hell, and topped it all off with Senior Formal. Ruskies and their dates gathered for Christmas cheer just before exams and held late nights when relaxation was in order.

In the kitchen, Cindy joined Peggy and Geneva as the Ruskies' most loyal friends. They answered our requests for more desserts, pasta bar, fresh veggies, and all of our traditional favorites. And more than anything they supported us and kept us going when things got tough!

Having welcomed over 70 new freshmen, the Rusk spirit lives on... the spirit of friends and fellowship, excitement and goodwill, food, fun, diversity, and laughter. Yes, in its 16th year, spirit is abundant at Rusk House!

KA

The 1992-93 school year brought even more changes to Davidson College, and especially to Patterson Court. The new alcohol policy succeeded in reducing the number of late-nights, but nothing could deter the quality of brotherhood at KA.

It was another year of excellence in which KA's contributed to every element of campus life. Whether it be through "Final Four" soccer players or other fine KA athletes in basketball, tennis, baseball, football, track, and of course, intramural flickerball, KA's made a difference this year in athletics. Off the playing field, KA honor council members, honor council chairmen, SGA Presidents, hall counselors, Davidsonian editors, and Union Boarders helped lead Davidson.

Socially, KA once again led the way with an assortment of unforgettable nights. The annual Hurricane Hugo Party, MD Disco, and Physical Graffiti were among the most memorable.

In service, KA continued to raise money for its national philanthropy -- the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Also KA's participated with Habitat for Humanity, Adopt-a-Highway, Time-to-Read, and the Big Brother-Little Brother program.

Of course, Mildred and Sylvia remained the constant forces who kept us in line, while providing the best Southern food on the court. "The Ladies" contribution to the house can never be overstated.

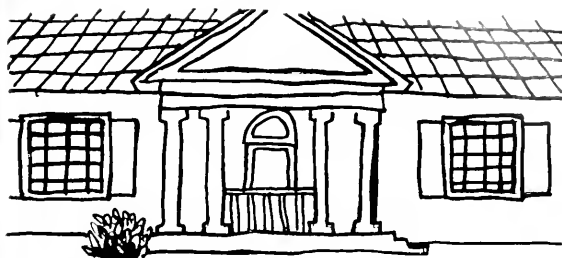

In sum, 1992-93 was another great year for the Order. The good times and the quality of the brotherhood made this year one of the best in our long, rich history. Wheat, Barley,...

(they wanted us to, really), built a mailbox for Connor, and planned a new addition for the house. Our new stereo cracked the house foundations during Haunted Woods, Big Hair, Fiji Island, and dozens of other events. We also spent a lot of time at Rob's house on Lake Norman arguing over how badly Duke sucks.

Remember the ker-splash club, la-pel, gravel, the lovely Krista, cigars, John's hair (or lack thereof), four initiations, Bruce Wilson, pledge in Vietnam, Rick's mood swings, shaving cream and bread fights, the reality of NBA 301, the talon of the Owl, four.. five.. six wicks burning, Wogan the Fish, Lexington, a belated football player, Mardi Gras, Enter the Dragon, go P.Y.!, Joseph, squeaky, Brandy, Wednesdays at Prime, Ren and Stimpy, and * you clown!

We like to think of Phi Gamma Delta as the epitome of fraternity life. After twenty years on Beaty street and seventy years at Davidson, Delta Kappa still means lasting friendships steeped in great traditions and the highest ideals. We are proud to be Fijis!

The 1992-93 year passes with Delta Kappa graduating its first senior class since our recolonization in 1989. It has also proven to be our most successful year to date, with excellence on the rise in every aspect of the chapter. We topped the Davidson fraternities in grades again, installed a new roof, started a parent's club, tore down some Habitat houses

ΣΑΕ

After a turbulent 1991-92 school year, SAE was faced with a dilemma that would certainly test our mettle, and surely would have caused average houses to perish. We returned in the fall with a strong resolve to revert to the ideals of excellence that were so exemplified in our founding fathers over one hundred years before.

From our temporary position of Eu Hall, we continued our strong traditions of service, mixed with the occasional social function. As always, SAE retained its position as the one true service-oriented house on the court. Among our many noble causes, a few traditional favorites were the Time-to-Read program, Big Brother-Little Brother, Davidson Phone-a-thon, Huntersville carols, and Habitat for Humanity. We also participated in a benefit golf tournament with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Like many loyal Davidsonians, we played a major role in the success of the 1992 NCAA Soccer Tournament.

To no one's surprise, we dominated the Davidson social scene from various locations. The American Legion post and the Mooresville armory proved to be worthy locations for our many memorable parties. The success of Homecoming and Midwinters will certainly prove a tough act to follow.

As we were faced with our first schoolyear without the fatherly guidance of Dr. Leland Park, a few loyal alums stepped up their role in our activities. With their continued support, we hope to establish a strong pledge class for the Fall of 1993. With Minerva's guidance, we will soon return to Patterson Court number six, our pedestal as the pre-eminent house on the Court.

FOOTBALL

The 1992 Davidson "Fighting Wildcats" Football Team can be characterized by a blend of innovation and tradition. New to the football team this year were forward rolls by the team as they took the field for each game, a wide open offensive system, a defense known as the Gurkha (chop, chop you're dead!), and four new coaches. Not everything was new about "The Fighting Wildcats" of 1992. "Pride in who you are and what you are" and a strong emphasis upon FAMILY were again stressed countless times by head coach Dave Fagg.

Led by a strong class of seniors (Leonel Benoist, John Bodkin, Nathan Fenwick, Dan Lamar, Ashton Loyd, Matt Matheny, Martin McCann, Steve Sturm, Steve Waters, Win Welch, and Mike Wright) the Cats posted a 5-5 record with an impressive mid-season turn around, winning four of their last five games. This success came against opponents who were always larger than the Cats in both size and numbers. "When you take the field, it is going to tip heavily in the other team's favor," Coach Fagg constantly reminded us.

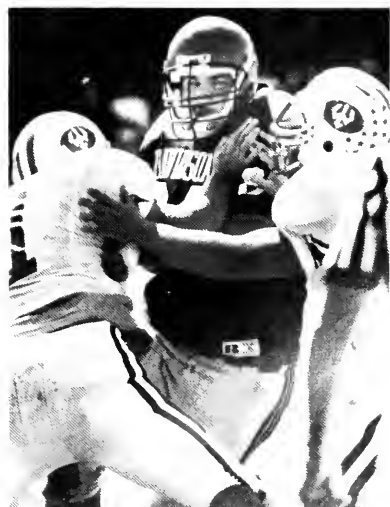

This late season surge along with a highly experienced and dedicated group of juniors and sophomores and a talented freshman class all combine to make the prospects of next season even brighter.

Field Hockey

The Davidson field hockey program reached new heights this year with a 15-2-1 record. The team earned its first ever regional ranking. In addition to their ranking, the Cats defeated nationally ranked University of Richmond, Virginia Commonwealth, and James Madison. Success can be attributed to an experienced team which included five seniors: Monique Dockter, Simone Plaisance, Jenny Plowright, Jennifer Roos, and Jacquelin Ukrop. Juniors Jill Bennett, Emily Coleman, Suzanne Hardesty, and Erin Lang, along with rising sophomores Robin Pepper and Missy Potts also provided quality leadership and stability for the team.

Davidson successfully defended its Deep South title for the third consecutive year by outscoring its two opponents in the tournament 11-0. The Deep South All-Tournament Team consisted of juniors Emily Coleman, Suzanne Hardesty, and Erin Lang, and seniors Monique Dockter and Jennifer Roos. In addition, sophomore Mary Ferguson, freshman Holly Kledis, junior Erin Lang, and seniors Jenny Plowright and Jacquelin Ukrop represented the South East Field Hockey Association at the National Field Hockey Festival in Irvine, California over Thanksgiving.

Individually, senior Jenny Plowright was recognized nationally and played for the South in the Division I Senior North-South All-Star game in Richmond before the NCAA Final Four.

Junior goalkeeper Emily Coleman recorded fourteen shutouts out of a possible eighteen games. She had over seventy saves and allowed only six goals during the season. This spectacular play gave her the third best goals-allowed average in the nation.

Threeppeat Champions

Cross Country

Senior Captain Ian Stewart and Senior Sensation David Kerns led the 1992 Men's Cross Country Team to one of its best years in recent history. Strong performances by the Cats earned them a 4th place finish at ASU and ninth out of twenty-four at the Winthrop Invitational. These Ironmen of running proved their toughness in the rough conditions at New York's Hunter College Invitational by placing third out of twenty-one teams. Stewart and Kerns both earned top twenty-five medals (10th & 24th places) and Senior Peter Hurtado finished strong despite vomiting in mid-run. The NC Inter-Collegiate Meet brought sunny, cool conditions and an eleventh place finish for the Cats. Putting his runners to the test, Coach Gary Andrew promised to shave his moustache if the men beat three teams to place seventh at the Southern Conference Meet. Later that day, the 7th place Wildcats joyfully watched Coach Andrew expose his long-covered mysterious upper lip. As if the excitement of the Conference Meet was not enough, all five runners set personal records on the 10K Furman course at Regionals. Kerns ran the fastest Davidson 10K time (32:48) in seventeen years and sent Coach Andrew into a state of wall-bouncing excitement. Stewart, Hurtado, Sophomore Erik McMichael and Junior Richard Wharton all shattered their previous best 10K times to end the season positively. Next year's team looks forward to the return of sophomores Joe Beach and Jim Moss and freshman John Bottomy from injury to help the only returning top-five runner, Erik McMichael, carry on the Wildcat tradition in 1993.

The 1992 Women's Cross Country Team, coached by dare-devil van driver Beth Manson, tackled the season and other obstacles with amazing force.

Freshman Marie Grisez, running her 19:58 PR, led the Cats to their 2nd place finish at ASU where all seven runners finished under 21:25. Three women in the top eleven, Grisez(6th), sophomore Elizabeth Bishop(9th), and sophomore Carolyn Meadows(11th), pushed the Lady Cats to a 3rd place finish at the Winthrop Invitational.

Throughout the season, Meadows proved to be a team stronghold with her hair-raising kick and a 20:27 PR. Speeding across the rocky, muddy terrain of New York's Van Cortland Park, 5th place Bishop led the Cats to a 6th place team finish at the Hunter Invitational. Junior captain Jean DeMoss ran hard for her mom at the NC Intercollegiate Meet and finished first for Davidson in 20:33. Close behind DeMoss, sophomore Laura Jordan and junior Lisa Sitek ran their best times of the season in 20:42 and 20:52. Only points behind Western Carolina, Davidson placed a strong fifth in its first Southern Conference Championships since the late eighties. DeMoss commented by saying, "The euphoria from our stupendous conference meet can only fuel our excitement for regionals at Furman, fine dining at the Bishop's house, and a marvelous end to a stellar season." Bishop fulfilled DeMoss' prediction by blazing through the Furman course in 19:22. Following her were the four other noninjured members of the team running strong to proudly represent Davidson and round out the 1992 season. With the return of freshmen Phuong Nguyen and Alicia Dandar from injury, the joy of Grisez's new orthotics, and seven returning runners, Davidson's second year back in the Southern Conference should be even better than the first.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1992 Davidson Volleyball season can best be described as one of adjustment and improvement. The Wildcats completed their first season under coaches Carolyn Blake and Holt Hathaway with a 13-24 record (3-7 in the Southern Conference). The team adjusted well to the changes in the program and raised their level of play to match that of their tough Southern Conference opponents.

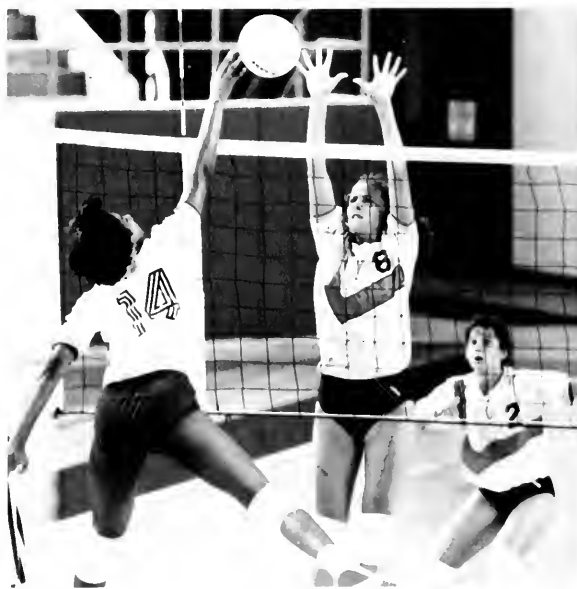

The highlights of the season were an impressive 3-0 victory on opening night against High Point, a second place finish at the VCU Tournament, and a thrilling and hard-fought performance in a 5-game loss to UNCC.

Coach Blake was especially pleased with the performance of the seniors, saying, "Our captain Jennie Wagner came through as a constant, stable force both offensively and defensively. Outside hitter Janet Delery established herself as our 'go-to player' and lit a fire under our team with her ability to put the ball away. Catherine Milligan played the vital role of a classic utility player. Her athleticism and her attitude allowed her to play any position when the need arose."

In addition, junior middle hitter Katherine Anderson sparked late in the season as she stepped into a leadership role and became a dominating offensive force. Coach Blake added that "our underclassmen gained valuable court experience and adjusted well to our new program and higher level of play."

Davidson players were rewarded throughout the season for their strong play. Sophomore setter Lorie Logan and Jennie Wagner were named to the VCU All-Tournament Team, and Janet Delery earned All-Tournament honors at the Davidson Invitational. Most impressive, however, was the impact made by freshman outside hitter Michele Augustin. Augustin was All-Tournament at UNCG and was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year.

All season, the team battled the challenges of overcoming injuries to key players and of playing at a consistently high level with varying line-ups. By the end of the season, the team's play showed heightened levels of defensive intensity and offensive power, causing Blake to conclude that "even though we were affected by several devastating injuries, including a season-ending knee injury for Michele Augustin, we made great strides in our mental toughness and our overall team play."

WOMEN'S SOCCER

In its fourth year of existence, the Lady Wildcats continued to improve, posting their second straight winning season (10-8-1). Coach Kevin Hundley created a good balance of youth and experience on the field. Freshman Launa Hankins led the Wildcats in scoring this year, with 15 goals and 3 assists for 33 points. Other freshmen standouts included Claudia Lombard who was named Davidson's MVP and Heather Wineberg who was second in scoring with 10 goals and six assists for a total of 26 points. The Wildcats will graduate three seniors who have added a great deal of leadership and experience: Amy Hoffheimer, Elizabeth McLaughlin, and Ann Todd.

Coach Hundley will look to junior tri-captains Jenny Satterfield, Susan E. Taylor, and Colleen Camaione to step up next year. With six sophomores returning including Ellen Sprinkle, the Wildcats' leading scorer her freshman year, and marking back Jody Lewis, the Wildcats look to continue their streak of winning records against tougher competition.

With a big win over Elon, a tie at Vanderbilt and close games against Radford and Mercer, the Davidson Women's Soccer Team will become a competitor among the top Division I programs in the South before we know it.

The Dream Team

Many have called it a Cinderella Story, but we prefer to view it as the fruits of a lot of hard work and all the pieces falling into place.

There were very high expectations for the 1992 Men's Soccer Team and all were reached: a Top Twenty ranking, a Southern Conference Championship, and a first-ever invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

The team benefitted immensely from the leadership and experience of its nine seniors. This cohesive and talented group had learned over its four year tenure what it takes to compete with and ultimately defeat the elite teams in the country. Senior Tri-Captains were Craig Omli, Matthew Spear, and Rob Ukrop. Omli anchored the Cats' stonewall defense while Spear was the catalyst and playmaker in the midfield.

Ukrop was the link which catapulted the program into a national powerhouse. As a junior in 1990, Rob was the third leading scorer in the nation (22 goals) and earned 2nd Team All-America honors. After breaking his leg in the second game of the 1991 season, Rob returned as a red-shirt senior to add a much-needed scoring punch for the Cats. His totals of 72 points (31 goals, 10 assists) in 1992 placed him as the national scoring leader and 1st Team All-America.

The team also possessed talented youth in its underclassmen. Juniors Ben Hayes (13 goals, 9 assists) and John Sampers (10 goals, 13 assists) complemented Ukrop to help the Cats score an astonishing 90 goals. Like Davidson teams of the past, the emphasis remained on a stingy team-oriented defense to shut down the talented opposition. Sophomore Alex Deegan started all but one game and compiled an outstanding 1.28 goals-against average.

After defeating UNC-Chapel Hill in the second game of the season on senior Cliff Castelloe's dramatic overtime goal, the Cats really recognized their potential by tying rival Duke 0-0 in Durham. Davidson clearly controlled the game and had many more scoring opportunities than Duke who was ranked #2 in the nation. With the impressive performance, the Cats moved to #16 in the nation.

The weekend of October 16 proved to be a huge stepping stone for Davidson Soccer. The Cats travelled to Los Angeles to play in the Met Life Classic, the most prestigious invitational in the country. Against the #2 ranked UCLA Bruins, the Cats could easily have been intimidated by the perennial powerhouse and the fact that three of the Bruins had started for the U.S. Olympic team in Barcelona. After falling behind 0-1, the Cats rebounded under pressure, as they did so many times during the season, for a decisive 3-1 victory with goals by Ukrop, Hayes, and Sampers. Davidson left Los Angeles with a #9 national ranking and the knowledge that they could beat any team in the country.

After two losses to Furman and Coastal Carolina, Coach Charlie Slagle told the team to win its final five games or they may not receive its well-earned invitation to the NCAA Tournament. The team responded by outscoring its five opponents 25-4 and winning its first ever Southern Conference Tournament Championship by beating Appalachian State 3-1 in the finals.

The team has earned its first berth in the elite 28 team NCAA Tournament, but its appetite had yet to be satisfied!

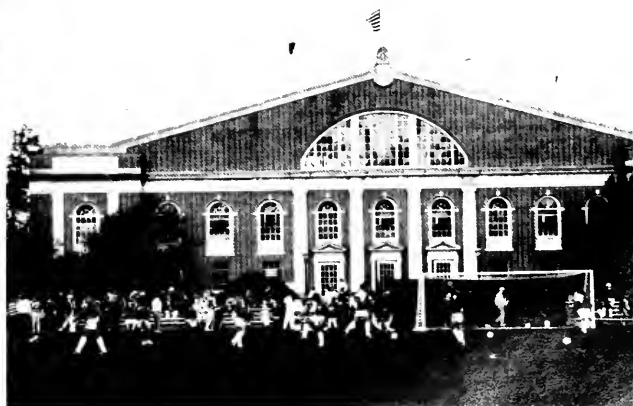

The N C A A FINAL FOUR

After receiving a bid to the 28 team NCAA Tournament, the Wildcats got one more shot at rival UNCC, which had defeated them earlier in the season. After an unbelievable goal off a bicycle kick by Rob Ukrop, the game ended in a 2-2 tie. The Cats won 4-3 on penalty kicks. In the second round against Coastal Carolina, the scenario was repeated. Goalie Alex Deegan did an outstanding job in goal, and the Cats advanced with a score of 6-5 during sudden death penalty kicks. To make it to the final four, Ukrop scored off a pass from Matt Spear to end the game 1-0 in sudden death overtime.

The Davidson Wildcats played in their first NCAA Final Four in front of a hysterical home crowd. Concord Road and the entire Town of Davidson became a soccer carnival as the school hosted the final four for the first time. The Cats lost with two minutes to go in overtime to San Diego State. San Diego State then lost to National Champion Virginia, who had defeated Duke in the other semifinal. The Dream Season ended nearly perfectly, with the Wildcats playing their last game in the final four in front of the home crowd.

CHEERLEADING AND DANCE TEAM

The 1992-93 Cheerleading and Dance Teams brought lots of enthusiasm to Davidson College sports events. The cheerleaders led the crowds at football and soccer games in the fall. They were joined at basketball games by the Dance Team who took control of the half-times and pleased crowds all season long.

Of course no spirit team would be complete without a mascot, and Davidson is no exception. Mr. Cat and Miss Cat were regularly seen harassing other teams' mascots and referees. The Cat family grew as two junior Wildcats made appearances late in the basketball season.

The Cheerleading Team, Dance Team, and mascots made Davidson sporting events more spirited and more fun.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

When the Southern Conference basketball coaches held their preseason meetings in November, they picked Davidson to finish ninth among ten teams in its return to the league after a four-year absence. Probably they relished the chance to beat up on a new chump at the bottom of the conference. But it didn't work out that way. In his fourth season, Davidson coach Bob McKillop put together a solid season. With two regular season games and the Southern Conference Tournament left, the Wildcats were 11-13, and held fifth place in the conference with an 8-8 record.

Without question, the team's play at home was the key to its success. Through February 26, Davidson had won just one game on the road (an 81-69 win over Western Carolina January 6), but had been dominant at Belk Arena. The team finished with a 10-4 record in Belk, including a 7-2 mark in Southern Conference play. And it was their 5-1 homestand in late January, in which the 'Cats beat, in succession, The Citadel, VMI, Marshall, and Georgia Southern, that put them into the thick of the league title chase. Davidson closed out the home schedule February 21 with a convincing 90-75 win over second-place East Tennessee State, Southern Conference champions and NCAA Tournament participants for four years running.

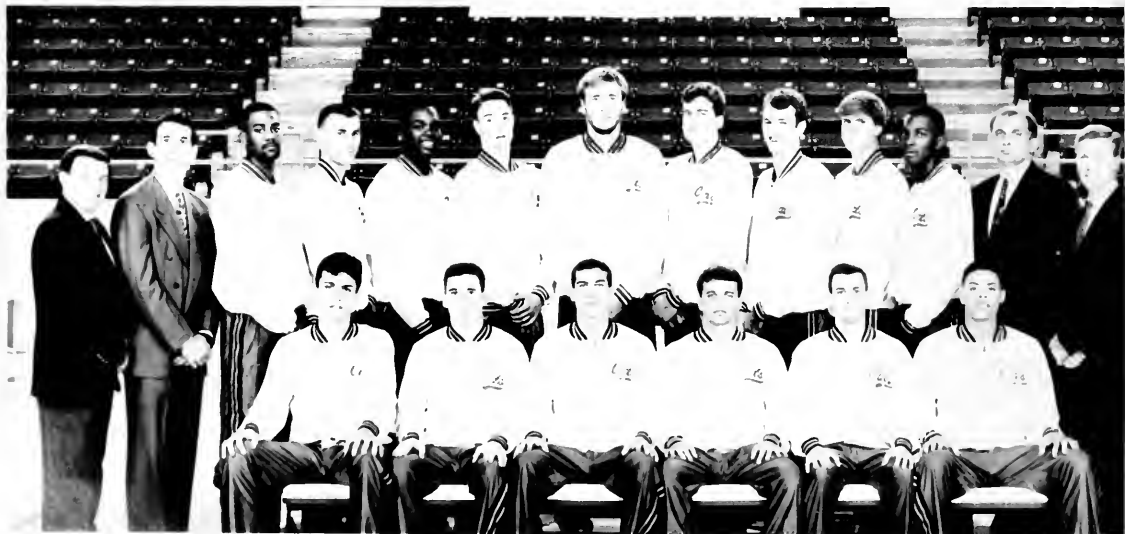

For the third year in a row, 7'0" senior center Detlef Musch started every game at center for the Wildcats, and emerged as the dominant center in the conference, averaging 14 points and almost seven rebounds per game. Musch scored 26 against Marshall and in February became the 26th

Davidson player to score more than 1,000 points in a career, and the first to start more than 100 consecutive games.

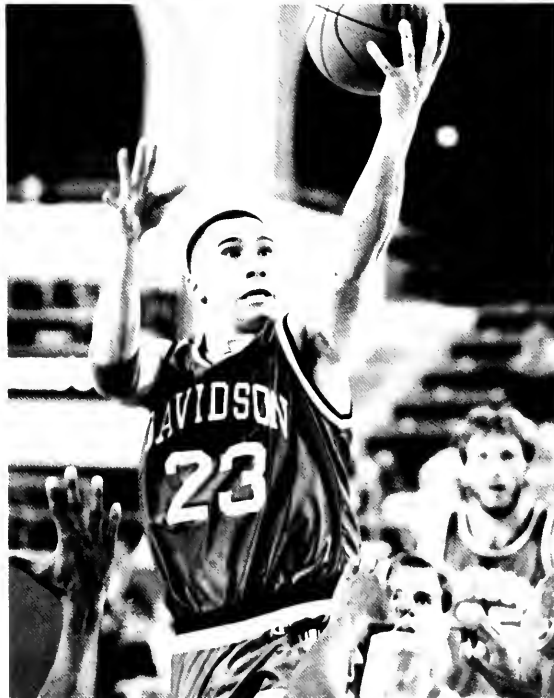

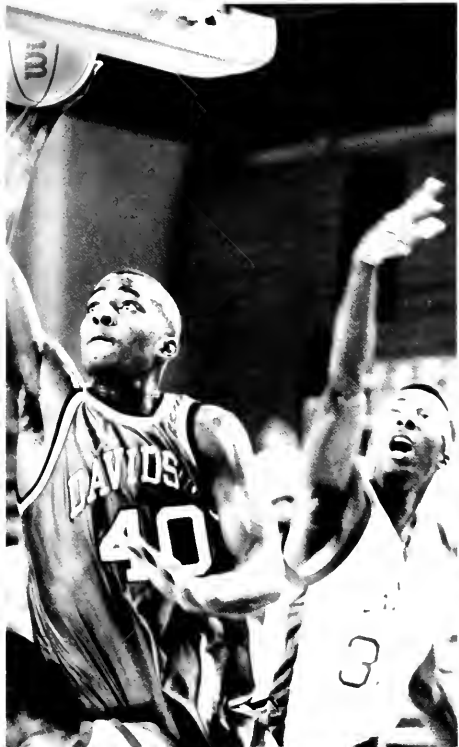

Juniors Jason Zimmerman and Janko Narat, the team's leading scorers the two previous seasons, also were on the verge of the 1,000 point threshold. Narat averaged 13 points and Zimmerman 12 during the season. Senior J.D. Heuer started every game at power forward, contributing eight points and six rebounds per game, and consistently drew tough defensive assignments. His defense held future NBA Lottery pick Rodney Rogers of Wake Forest to 10 points.

The team featured a freshman class of seven, none of whom was more important to the team's success than walk-on guard Chris Alpert. Alpert took over the starting point guard role after the season's first two games, becoming one of only two walk-on starters in Division I, and played with unflinching poise. He averaged six points, five rebounds, and four assists per game, but his steady direction of the team was his most valuable contribution. Fellow freshmen Brandon Williams (7.4 ppg) and Jeff Anderson (5.1 ppg) were the first reserves off the bench. Williams, nicknamed "Ozone" for now-obvious reasons, provided an aerial game hitherto absent in McKillop's tenure.

Seniors Musch, Heuer, and Matt Matheny will be lost to graduation, but the return of Zimmerman and Narat and the early success of this year's freshman class suggests a competitive future for Davidson in the Southern Conference.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

With four sophomores, 1 junior, and 2 seniors, the women's basketball team was rejuvenated to varsity status after a six-year absence. Their entrance coincided with the celebration of ten years of excellence in women's athletics in the Southern Conference. Davidson's women's basketball team will officially begin competition in the Southern Conference next year. Expectations are high for next year because the team nearly achieved a .500 winning percentage this season.

Facing teams from Division III to Division I, the Wildcats gained needed experience. In their first game against Ferrum, the Cats made an impressive debut with a twenty-four point win. The first Division I opponent to fall was UNC-A. The Cats won by fifteen in Asheville before Christmas break. Then the Cats made a strong showing against UNC-W in their Christmas tournament. The most win came over Big South Conference rival Winthrop when senior Jennifer Roos hit a three-pointer with one second remaining for the victory.

Freshman Kristen Ferrucci led the team in scoring during the first half of the season until she broke her fibula in the game against Western Carolina. As a result, other players were needed to step up to make up for Ferrucci's scoring and rebounding prowess.

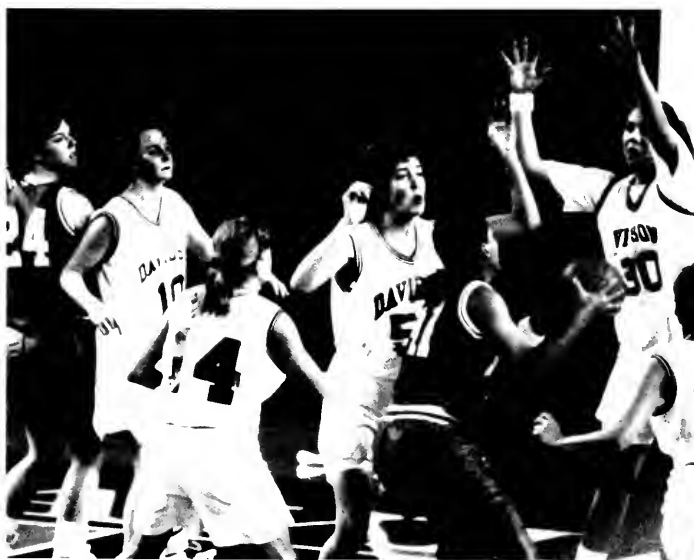

And step up the did! Freshmen Tonya Sharpe and Maggie Young lit up the scoreboard from the perimeter. Each averaged double digits in scoring, while Young led the team in three-pointers. Freshman Erin Butcher led the team in scoring and rebounding. She was ranked seventh nationally in rebounding with an average of 12.4 per game and was the second leading freshman rebounder. Other inside players Molly Burke and Cara Crosswhite added key offensive and defensive plays for the Cats. Other contributors from the bench were Cindy Minko, Krisy Ford, Addria Capps, Lisa Lyons, and Kristin Solsrud.

Seniors Jenny Plowright and Jennifer Roos' leadership and character will be missed, but the future is in the hands of the underclassmen. They will have to rise to the challenge more than ever with a full slate of Southern Conference opponents next year, but Coach Filar and his young team are looking forward to it.

WRESTLING

The 1993 Davidson Wrestling Team got a shot in the arm with the arrival of an outstanding freshman class. Head Coach Tom Oddo has been building up the wrestling team for several years and fielded a deep squad for the 1993 campaign. With powerhouse Bo Bartholomew wrestling at 190 pounds, Jason Deaton at 118 lbs., Sean Harvey and 126 lbs., Miller Carey at 150 lbs., and transfer sophomore Derek Spincer at 142 lbs., this year's new arrivals made an immediate impact. Team leaders Francis Mitchell at 142 lbs. and Jared Glick at 158 lbs. showed that the freshmen were not the only ones having fun. These upperclassmen combined for many strong performances over the season.

Captain Henry Neale, the only senior on the team, commented on the youthful team, "These guys have shown great improvement, and Davidson can expect excellent performances over the next few years." While Neale will be missed next year, the team will welcome the return of Robbie Fierro, who is in Australia this semester. His return should seal an excellent future for the Cats.

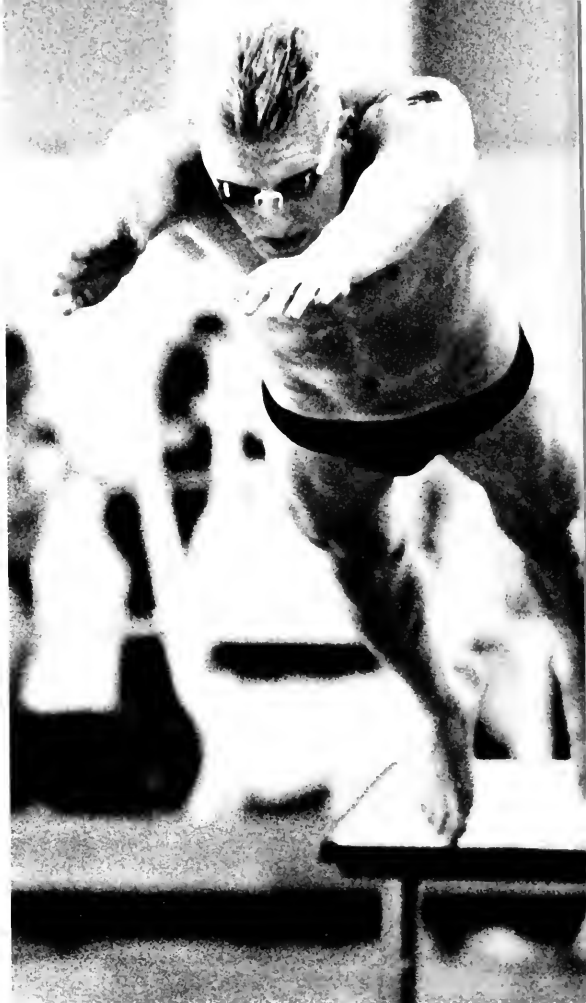

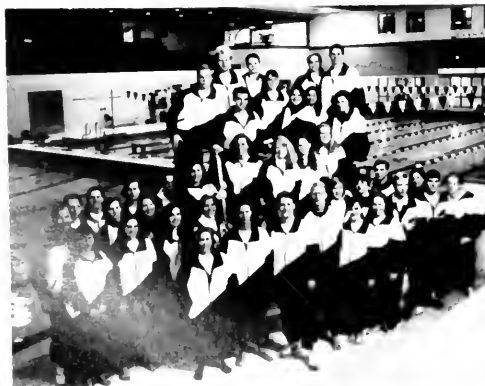

SWIMMING AND DIVING

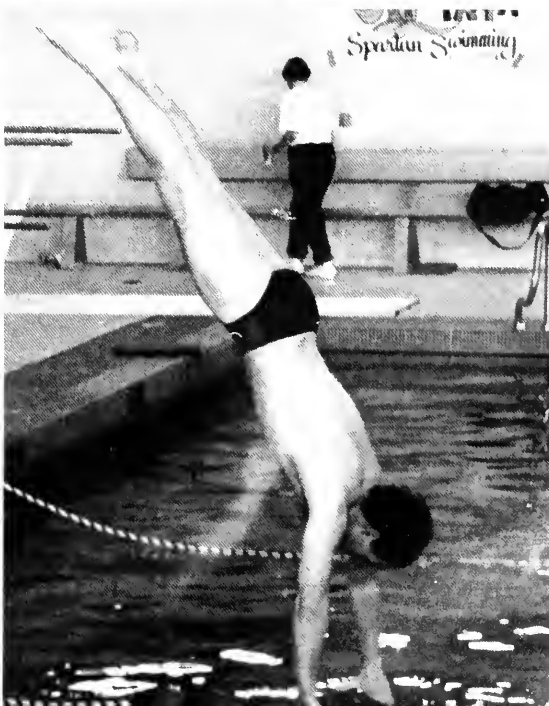

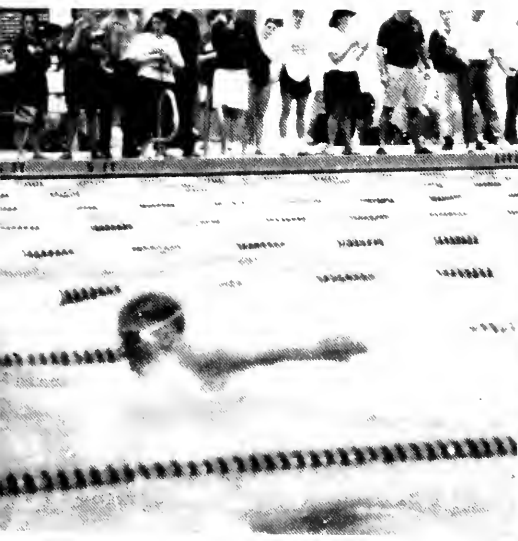

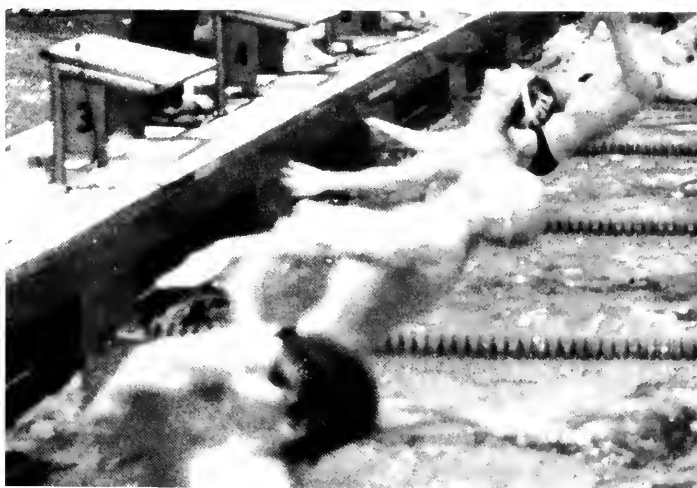

1992-1993 was a year for the swimming and diving team to ring in a new era at Davidson. An incredibly strong recruiting class will help lessen the loss of the seniors. The contribution of the freshmen and upperclassmen led the swimming Wildcats to a better season than anyone could have hoped for.

Senior captains Carlton Craig, Tara Cox, Curtis Bickers, and Caroline Prioleau led the team by example. With help from the other seniors the captains have moved Davidson swimming from a club team into the big time.

Heading up a strong corps of freshmen were standouts Churchill Hooff, Corey Bean, Kevin Boler, Jennifer Schuetz, and Katharine Welling. The freshmen's impact was dramatic and immediate, as the season's record clearly shows. The Wildcats swam a tough Division I schedule, but with everyone pulling together, they have proven themselves to be a force in the Southern States Conference.

The season went out with a bang as the Cats proved their mettle at the conference meet. Freshman Churchill Hooff brought home a big win in the 500 freestyle and followed that up with runner-up honors in both the 200 and 1,650 freestyle. Senior Curtis Bickers represented the upperclassmen as he took third in both the one and three meter diving. In impressive fashion the Wildcats placed several swimmers into finals and set personal and school records. Despite an extremely tough field, Davidson finished just under the half-way mark at the Southern States Meet. Other teams beware: the Wildcats mean business and they are only getting better.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Davidson College Women's Tennis Team played its 18th season with a big advantage. Head Coach Caroline Price's team returned all of its top six players from last year's Big South Conference Runner-up squad. Their re-entrance into the competitive Southern Conference was a successful one.

Leading the Cats again was junior standout Cyndi Hess, who has occupied the top spot of the Davidson lineup since her arrival three years ago. She played number one singles and teamed with Kimberly Nance in number one doubles. Juniors Jennifer Beahm, Tasha Ruth, and Barbara Grooms brought more experience and leadership to the team. Sophomore Nicole Wilcox shined again, returning from a freshman year in which she won over thirty matches and won the number five singles conference title.

Newcomers Susannah Cobb and Sarah Heer rounded out the top eight and provided for a powerful team in the Southern Conference.

MEN'S TENNIS

The Men's Tennis Program entered the 1992-93 campaign with one of its best teams in Coach Jeff Frank's twenty-one year career. The move back to the strong Southern Conference in addition to matches against Virginia, South Carolina, plus a tournament at UNC-Chapel Hill ensured that the team would be tested. After going 8-0 in the fall season, the Cats had an optimistic attitude about the spring and the upcoming conference tournament being held at Davidson.

Davidson's strength stemmed from its experience and depth. Coach Frank returned all six singles starters from a team that went 16-6 and finished second in the Big South Conference a year ago. And with a virtual plethora of players to choose from, the doubles teams looked to be strong as well. The three seniors provided the leadership and stability needed to guide the team towards the goal of a conference championship.

Over the past four years, one player has served as the cornerstone of the tennis program. Davidson has been blessed with Albie Varoski's outstanding play on the tennis court, however his play off the court has been lacking. Playing just below Albie at the #2 position, with an awe-inspiring physique, was David Jespersen who won a conference title a year ago. Dave Tonidandel held down the #6 position again this year. Once opponents got a whiff of "Toni" and his powerful serve and volley game, they were usually overwhelmed. All kidding aside, these three provided the foundation for an excellent season with their work ethic, leadership, and success on and off the court. With the rest of the team following their example, Coach Frank was ensured of another strong season.

WOMEN'S TRACK AND FIELD

1997-98 was a bittersweet year for Davidson's track and field squad. Incredible performances were mixed with injuries and illnesses throughout the year. Sophomore Elizabeth Bishop attacked school records in every race she ran. Junior Karen Marshall returned to the team to assert herself as the top middle distance runner.

Junior captain Jean DeMoss overcame a foot injury to run strong in the 1500 late in the season. Carolyn Meadows was the grittiest runner, pushing herself to the limit in her 1500 and 800 meter races. Freshman standout Marie Grisez proved she could make the adjustment from high school to college, improving during the season to post strong times in the middle distance races.

This strong group of distance runners was balanced by Maria Whitehead and Heather Tarpley in the sprints and field events. Maria proved her mettle in the long jump and the sprints. Heather, the epitome of senior dedication, achieved great success in the 400 hurdles and her favorite event, the discus.

First year coach Beth Manson was an All-American thrower in college and provided excellent coaching for Tarpley in her quest for the school record. Manson worked well with all of the athletes, leading the women to excellent performances. What a great first season as head coach!

MEN'S TRACK AND FIELD

The 1990 Men's Track and Field season was the final showcase for one of the largest and strongest group of seniors in recent history. Co-captain Peter Hurtado reasserted his dominance as Davidson's best middle distance runner, posting the second-best time ever run indoors for the 800. He then took aim at the outdoor record. David Kerns and Ian Stewart converted their excellent cross-country times into stunning performances in the mile, 3,000, 5,000, and steeplechase. Each ended their careers ranked among Davidson's best ever in several events. This outstanding trio was supported by Rafael Candelario in the shot put and discus and by Mike Grant and Ben Wiley in the 800.

A strong group of underclassmen showed that the seniors did not get all the glory. Co-captain Duncan Spears, after being tripped up in the indoor conference championships, attacked the outdoor season with a vengeance. He defended his outdoor conference title in the 400 hurdles. Sophomore Lee Sutton set a school record in the shot put, proving himself to be a force for the next few years. Sophomore Erik McMichael will step into a leadership role next year in the 800 and 1,500. He ran right with Hurtado all year long, leaping into the ranks of Davidson's best ever. Rob King, Joe Beach, Jeff George, Rob Clemens, Jim Moss, John Bottomy, and Greg Fisher rounded out the team.

Coach Gary Andrews coached the team to many record performance. In their second year in the Southern Conference, the Wildcats showed that they can compete with the best in the South.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

The women's lacrosse program was off to an early start this year with practice beginning in late January. The early start was necessary because they were leading the way as the first varsity women's lacrosse team in school history. Having competed last year as a club team, head coach Betsy Brown was very excited about the move from club to varsity status and about the opportunity to begin a program at the Division I level.

"Having a successful record last year has given me a lot of confidence in this year's season. We will have tougher competition this year, but we are finally ready for the challenge," said Coach Brown.

Lacrosse is somewhat of a new age sport to many schools in the South, and is played predominantly in the North. The women faced many teams from Virginia like Sweet Briar, Longwood, Hollins, James Madison, and Randolph-Macon.

The team is comprised of experienced players and beginners from every class. Some standout players were seniors Jenny Plowright and Treloar Tredennick, and sophomores Allison Adams, Nancy Hilles, and Megan Snyder. Many women on the team, in addition to playing lacrosse, competed on the field hockey, basketball, and swim teams. Two and three sport athletes used their athleticism in order to give the program a solid foundation. In a first year program, building a foundation is the key to a successful program down the road.

BASEBALL

The time has finally come for Coach Dick Cooke to lead his 1993 edition Wildcat baseball team back into the Southern Conference. The Southern Conference, a step up from the Big South Conference, will challenge the Wildcats with stiffer competition from teams like Georgia Southern and The Citadel, recent participants in the College World Series. Davidson should be ready for the competition, having been picked to finish fourth in the conference by Baseball America.

A strong offense will be led by senior captain and shortstop Rick Bender, senior right fielder Tim Kerns, and junior catcher Brett Boretti. Both Bender and Boretti were selected to the Pre-Season All-Southern Conference Team by Baseball America. The pitching staff will be led by seniors Randy Spaw and Mark Snyder, and junior Chris Carrigan. The Wildcat freshmen, an outstanding group, could provide the extra push the Cats need to earn the Southern Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Coach Cooke has laid the foundation for a program that will be competitive for years to come.

GOLF

The Men's Golf Team enjoyed rebuilding seasons in 1992-93. Hampered by youth and semesters abroad, this seniorless team's greatest gains came in the experience department. Led by junior Will McDaniel's stroke average of 75, the Wildcat golfers showed promise with new line-ups in each of their four tournaments in the fall. Coach Gordon Mietz felt confident about inserting any number of players in the rotation at any time. Highlighted by McDaniel's top ten finish at the Mike Hargrove Memorial Tournament in Buies Creek, North Carolina, the team finished the fall ready for the spring.

With McDaniel off to some exotic island in South America in the spring, juniors Will Coble and Marc Raber returned from their sojourns in Europe to lead the team with the help of steady sophomore Kevin Miller. With Miller overcoming a putting disability and Coble and Raber overcoming culture shock, the team placed very well in each of their five tournaments in the spring. Freshmen Bill Hyder, Slade Worley, Bob Bailey, and Aubrey Proud consistently proved to the older Wildcats and Coach Mietz that they are ready to compete in the future as each posted low scores at times during the year. Coach Mietz hopes that with continued improvement, juniors Jim Jackson and Kevin Garbee will contribute heavily next year. With the return of McDaniel and sophomore Hal Fogleman, the Wildcats will place their best line-up in years on the course next fall. Expectations will soar as the team is sure to vie for several tournament titles.

Coach Mietz and the Wildcats wish to express their tremendous gratitude to the members and staff of River Run Country Club for their continued support. Without the privileges River Run grants the team, the Wildcats would struggle to find time for extensive practice during each season.

RUGBY

The Davidson College Rugby Football Club burst into the upper ranks of North Carolina Rugby in the 1992-1993 seasons. The team worked hard and earned the number 2 ranking in its state division after being next to the last for several years. The 5-1 record for the 1992 season was due mainly to the efforts of the coach and the dedication of the officers. The team roster more than doubled, climbing to a respectable 37 from a meager 17 just last year. This increase in players added much talent to the squad; but, more importantly, it enabled the team to have effective practices, yielding a team that was defensively sound and offensively threatening. The club not only won games; they conquered their division opponents. Counting 27 underclassmen on the team, the future looks extremely good for the Davidson College Rugby Football Club. A promising group of leaders and a multitude of talented players can only mean improvement for an already excellent team.

MEN'S LACROSSE

This year, Men's Club Lacrosse joined the National Club Lacrosse League in Baltimore, MD. The NCLL gives the players opportunities and recognition that they were looking for. At the end of the season, there are championship and all-star games for the winners of the separate divisions.

Men's Club Lacrosse has a wide variety of players who have played in high school and those who are just picking up the sport. The leadership of our seniors Jay Speigel and Tom Hunter aid tremendously in teaching the new players the fundamentals of the game.

Junior co-captains Trey Rust and Jim Livingston give direction to a team that otherwise has a mind of it's own. It is the abundance of talent in the sophomore class, however, that keeps the team thriving.

MORE CLUB SPORTS

Other club sports included sailing, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and men's volleyball.

IMAC

A majority of Davidson students participated in intramural athletics during the 1992-93 school year. Under the direction of Judy Krenzel and IMAC president Carla Davis, student-formed teams competed in everything from basketball to flickerball to volleyball to soccer. Students were attracted by the companionship and competition provided by intramural sports at Davidson.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Sports Medicine Department is an often overlooked and under-appreciated area of the Athletic Department. With an excellent staff and state of the art equipment, the trainers are able to keep Davidson's athletes healthy and productive. Their duty does not simply end with taping ankles and applying ice. Often trainers can be found driving vans to away games and returning late in the night with their teams. Head Trainer Chuck Voyles leads the crew with assistance from several people. Scott and Jennifer are the Assistant Trainers, and James, Tim, and Carrie served as the GA's for the year, along with many student trainers. All together, they do an excellent job of serving Davidson's Sports Medicine needs from the club up to the varsity level.

ORGANIZATIONS

HONOR COUNCIL

"Responding to vast student concerns about the workings of the Honor System, the Honor Council has tried to heighten the awareness and involvement of all members of the college community. By implementing mandatory freshman mock trials, increasing the number of members on the council, writing informative articles in the Davidsonian, holding a fall retreat, creating a guidebook for honor system operations, and making sweeping changes and updates in the code, we have made our greatest strides in the 1992-1993 academic school year." — Matt Bumstead, Honor Council Chairman

Thank God For Peter

Proverbs 3: 1-10

- 1 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments.
- 2 For length of days and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.
- 3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart.
- 4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
- 5 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not unto thine own understanding.
- 6 In all thy ways acknowledge Him and he shall direct thy paths.
- 7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord and depart from evil.
- 8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.
- 9 Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase.
- 10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

Captain's Page

Each Davidson student-athlete experiences a unique narrative, but perhaps mine can shed some light on the common journey.

I have learned much at Davidson, both in the classroom and on the soccer field. I am one who believes that the mind, body, and soul are all contingent upon each other. The knowledge I acquired in class added to the intangible qualities I gained on the field have made me a more self-confident, enterprising, and well-rounded individual.

Contrary to many common expectations, being a serious athlete can indeed help one to become a better student. During our team's busy fall seasons, I learned that only an organized daily regimen would ensure me success both as a student and an athlete. Preparing for an exam or a big game required parallel skills such as a focused work ethic and a strong will to always be better. Then when it came test or game time, I would strive to enrich my composure to think and act clearly, while ever intensifying my confidence to succeed. Hard, genuine work was the only way. As a dedicated, goal-oriented athlete, I acknowledged my weaknesses and aimed to improve them while simultaneously gaining insight into abilities and strengths I never knew I possessed.

Even more gratifying than my personal growth was the relationships that were products from a well-oiled team's chemistry, in which each and every member is striving and dreaming for that one common goal. The support and encouragement that was provided by friends/classmates and professors injected school pride. The more the College family got behind our team, the better we played and the more we wanted to win.

Much credit should go to the Davidson professors who are the keys to allowing the true student-athlete experience to continue. A Davidson athlete could not take advantage of her/his status (as in many Division I programs) and yet the professors are generally very fair and receptive in understanding each student's condition. The athletes, professors, coaches, and administrators all seem to agree that Davidson's high academic standards should not and will not be sacrificed.

Although it was by no means easy, I was relatively adept after my Freshman year at balancing my academic, athletic, and social endeavors. What I have seen in a high majority of Davidson student-athletes is a burning and unequalled desire to be winners on and off the field. If Davidson continues to recruit and admit intelligent, talented, and motivated student-athletes, it is very possible for the College to remain an national academic leader and continue to improve in its athletic excellence.

It is by no means an inaccurate appraisal or overused cliché to declare that the Davidson formula is far different from that of its competing institutions. In an age when big time college athletics is becoming increasingly similar to professional sports, it is both extraordinary and refreshing for Davidson to maintain its dedication to the traditional prototype and essence of a student-athlete.

President's Page

As a freshman, I thought of Davidson with contempt and frustration. Being one of a small number of African American students, I felt that much needed to be done to improve race relations and to encourage openness in general. All of a sudden I find myself looking back on 365 days as your Student Government Association President.

I came into office with three objectives: improving student-faculty relations, student-trustee relations, and student-student relations. All three goals arose from my concern that our college community has operated in large part as separate parts rather than as fingers on a hand.

Student/faculty relations have improved significantly over the past year. Dr. Benjamin Klein (Interim Dean of Academic Affairs and Professor of Mathematics), Dean Robert Williams (Dean of Academic Affairs), and Dr. Alexander McKelway (Vice-President Pro-Tem of the Faculty) have made exceptional attempts to solicit student opinion in academic matters. They should be commended for their respect for student opinion. The new SGA Council on Academic Affairs must serve as a resource to both students and faculty, as issues between us arise. The SGA faculty/student roundtables, an effort to engage campus issues of mutual interest, has met considerable success. We must continue to broaden communication between our groups, because our interests are often more similar than dissimilar.

Student/Trustee relations have improved measurably through efforts of the Trustee contact committee, the school administration, and the Trustees themselves. For the first time, I heard Trustees comment on letters that they received from their student liaisons, and those letters helped extend Baker Sports Complex hours. Both groups, I think, have reaffirmed the important connection between us. We must continue our commitment to Trustee correspondence and interaction.

Student/student relations have been greatly influenced by the Student Government agenda this term of office. The alcohol policy has changed our social lives significantly. I expect that the policy will gain more acceptance with time and a few adjustments. No campus group -- administration, faculty, Trustees, or students -- stand to gain from a boring campus life. The bottom line, however, is that things will never be what they were.

In another area of student interaction, we have renewed our confidence in Davidson athletics through our men's soccer team. Embarrassing as it is, I was as fair-weather as anyone during soccer season. Unfortunately, I was not alone. Our support of Davidson athletes has been low, and over my years here, we have underestimated our importance as supporters. The louder we cheer and support our student-athletes, the more we can expect from them. I wonder how far Davidson athletics can go with the full support of students and this community.

The word intolerance surfaced on campus last year, resulting from angry incidents and the use of racial and sexual orientation slurs on campus. Intolerance, in my mind, comprises a small part of a larger problem. An absence of intolerance does not necessarily promote mutual respect and understanding. As individuals and groups, we must search for ways to be more inclusive in thought and action. The Davidson community must strive to be progressive.

I set out the past year to illustrate that what has been done is the result of outstanding commitment from the student government and campus leaders. But many needs remain unmet, some inadequately addressed. Yes, we are and should be concerned with the alcohol policy, the number of exam days, and Baker Sports Complex hours. However, those issues are perennial. The student agenda must be more substantive and proactive than that. I hope that my leadership has furthered broad progress while servicing day-to-day student concerns.

I hope that my service has inspired some to continue fighting for inclusiveness and understanding and has made clearer than ever the need for energized student leadership. We have made strides toward bringing the student agenda to its rightful place as a primary part of the college agenda. I leave you to build upon the Davidson experience.

Tuesday February 9, 1993, Alden Smith was sworn into office, and I left with the satisfaction that I have done my very best to serve you.

Keep it strong and peace,
Anthony Foxx '93

One Final Moment

In a few moments, the yearbook will be finished. It has taken many long hours, headaches, and sleepless nights, but it was well worth it. We have tried to capture all of the moments that have made the 1992-93 school year memorable.

I would like to give special thanks to Janet Delery, my assistant editor who conquered the computer, photographers Jamie Moore and Bobby Bowers, and Peter Hurtado who was always willing to do whatever was necessary to meet the deadlines. Thanks to Scott Caldwell and Herff Jones, Leslie Marsicano, Bill Gidduz, Mike Hood, and the entire staff of Quips and Cranks.

As we seniors prepare to leave the confines of Davidson College, we turn to face the challenges and opportunities life offers. We enter a world tortured by international political disorder, economic and environmental struggle, and racial and ethnic conflict. We have our work cut out for us. With the hope that we can help to make the world a little bit more secure, peaceful, and just, I wish to close the 95th edition of Quips and Cranks with a prayer for unity.

Ben Wiley
Editor-in-Chief

(Now, before we all go our separate ways to graduate school, the work force, or some form of service, let's first take some time out to play some basketball.)

O my God! O my God! Unite the hearts of Thy servants, and reveal to them Thy great purpose. May they follow Thy commandments and abide in Thy law. Help them, O God, in their endeavor, and grant them strength to serve Thee. O God! Leave them not to themselves, but guide their steps by the light of knowledge, and cheer their hearts by Thy love. Verily, Thou art their Helper and their Lord.
